Viking Parent Newsletter

A good school provides a rounded education for the whole person. And a good Catholic school, over and above this, should help all its students to become saints.

JV Mock Trial

Offutt, Offutt and Nicotra sounds like a law firm. It also happens to be the last names of the award winners in the JV Mock Trial Showcase held at the BPAC. Freshman Claudia Offutt and junior Rita Offutt won awards for Best Attorney. With two trials on the docket, Claudia Offutt also won an Award for Best Witness along with freshman classmate Joseph Nicotra. Verdicts were decided by jury members Mary Kate Kalinich a practicing attorney, Sam Miller a third year law student, and Head of School Shirley Bounds.

The students in Mock Trial portrayed witnesses and lawyers representing the plaintiff and defense in a civil case regarding fraud. All students gave excellent performances as they carefully asked and answered questions, made objections, and entered evidence.

This weekend the Varsity Mock Trial team will take the courtroom at the New Castle County Courthouse to compete against other teams from the state. The competition runs all day Friday and Saturday. The team will be identified by team code "KH".

Eagle Scout Award

Justin Lawson, Class of 2017, recently received his Eagle Scout Award. Father Lewis blessed the award at Mass and a breakfast followed in Grant Hall. For his service project, Justin led a group to refinish the floors in the gallery at the Wilmington Theatre. Congratulations, Justin!

Gautier Signs with UMass-Boston

Congratulations to Senior Kailee Gautier who signed to play basketball at the University of Massachusetts-Boston. She will represent our school well!

Swimming to States

Congratulations to all the girls who participated the DIAA Swimming and Diving Championships last night. Eighth grader Camryn Cresci, freshman Claudia Offutt, sophomore Kate Mattson and junior Liz Hagerty who broke a school record in the 400 freestyle relay! The boys compete tonight. Good luck Viking swimmers!

Collecting Trash to Save the Environment

Environmental science students performing a personal waste audit gathered on the front steps with their collection bags. They spent the day collecting all their trash and analyzed it during class. Go Viking Environment Science!

Prom Dress Give-Away

The Woodlawn Library and the Garfield Park Activity Center are giving away Prom dresses at two separate events on March 3 and March 4. Please see the attached flyer for more information.
